KEY FEATURES OF THE ILP SUB-FUND

WHAT ARE YOU INVESTING IN?

You are investing in an ILP sub-fund which feeds 100% into the Baillie Gifford Worldwide Asia ex Japan Fund - Class A USD (the “Underlying Fund”), a sub-fund of Baillie Gifford Worldwide Funds plc. Baillie Gifford Worldwide Funds plc is an open-ended investment company with variable capital organised under the laws of Ireland as a public limited company pursuant to the Companies Acts and the UCITS Regulations and is organised in the form of an umbrella fund with segregated liability between sub-funds.

Please refer to the “Introduction” section of the Underlying Fund’s Prospectus for further information on features of the Sub-Fund.

Investment Strategy

- The Underlying Fund will seek to achieve its objective primarily through investment in a diversified portfolio of equity securities which are listed, traded or dealt on Regulated Markets in Asia (excluding Japan). The Underlying Fund may also invest in equity securities issued by companies deriving a substantial part of their income from, or having a substantial proportion of their assets located in, Asia (excluding Japan) and which are listed, traded or dealt on Regulated Markets worldwide.

Please refer to the “Investment Objectives and Policies of the Funds” section of the Underlying Fund’s

² For ILP sub-fund that feeds 100% into an underlying CIS fund, some of the information provided below could be similar to the underlying CIS fund.

• The equity securities in which the Underlying Fund may invest will not be selected from any particular industry sector or from any particular country and may be of small, medium or large market capitalisation, with no specific target allocation between small, medium and large market capitalisation companies. • The equity securities in which the Underlying Fund may invest will not be selected from any particular industry sector or from any particular country and may be of small, medium or large market capitalisation, with no specific target allocation between small, medium and large market capitalisation companies. • The investment strategy of the Underlying Fund is to invest primarily in equity securities with the aim of providing above average returns comprising capital growth and dividend income over the long term. • Cash is a residual element of the investment process. Cash may be held on deposit by the Underlying Fund. Cash equivalents may also be held by the Underlying Fund from time to time. Cash deposits and cash equivalents held by the Underlying Fund will not generally exceed 10% of its Net Asset Value, but in exceptional circumstances (for example in an uncertain market environment) the Underlying Fund may hold in excess of 10% of its Net Asset Value in cash or cash equivalents. • The Underlying Fund may invest all of its Net Asset Value in investments in Emerging Market Countries which are Asia (ex Japan). In relation to investment in China, the Underlying Fund may have exposure to permissible PRC (People's Republic of China) Instruments directly via the Stock Connects and/or through the FII Scheme or indirectly via investments in structured notes, participation notes, equity-linked notes or eligible collective investment schemes that invest primarily in permissible PRC Instruments, structured notes, participation notes, equity-linked notes and similar financial instruments. • The Underlying Fund will not invest more than 10% of its Net Asset Value in units or shares of eligible collective investment schemes, including exchange traded funds with similar investment objectives and policies to the Underlying Fund. • The Underlying Fund may invest in currency forwards to reduce currency risk but not to take active positions on currency. Such use will be for efficient portfolio management purposes. Other than the Underlying Fund's investment in convertible securities, preferred securities, convertible preferred securities, participation notes, warrants and rights for investment purposes, the Underlying Fund may only use financial derivative instruments for efficient portfolio management purposes. Derivatives, in general, involve special risks and costs and may result in losses to the Underlying Fund.	Prospectus for further information on the investment strategy.
Parties Involved
WHO ARE YOU INVESTING WITH? • Investment-Linked Plan Provider is Etiqa Insurance Pte. Ltd. • The ILP sub-fund manager is Baillie Gifford Investment Management (Europe) Limited • The Depositary of the Underlying Fund is Brown Brothers Harriman Trustee Services (Ireland) Limited.	Please refer to the "Management and Administration" section of the Prospectus for further information on the role and responsibilities of these entities.
KEY RISKS
WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT? Investment markets can go down as well as up and market conditions can change rapidly. The value of an investment in the Underlying Fund, and any income from it, can fall as well as rise and you may not get back the amount invested.	Please refer to the "Risk Factors" section of the Underlying Fund's Prospectus for further information on the key risks.

Market and Credit Risks
You are exposed to investment risk. There can be no assurance that the Underlying Fund will achieve its investment objective. An investment in the Underlying Fund involves investment risks, including possible loss of the amount invested. Therefore, the Underlying Fund's returns may be expected to fluctuate in response to changes in capital appreciation or income. Consequently, the investment is suitable only for investors who are in a position to take such risks and to adopt a long-term approach to their investment strategy. You are exposed to political risks. The performance of the Underlying Fund may be affected by changes in economic and market conditions, uncertainties such as political developments, military conflict and civil unrest, changes in government policies, government appropriations, the imposition of restrictions on the transfer of capital and in legal, regulatory and tax requirements. You are exposed to currency risks. The Underlying Fund has exposure to foreign currencies and changes in the rates of exchange will cause the value of any investment, and income from it, to fall as well as rise and you may not get back the amount invested. You are exposed to force majeure risks. Infectious viruses may pose significant threats to human health and may be highly disruptive to global economies and markets. The economic and market disruptions caused by infectious viruses could impact the value of the investments of the Underlying Fund.
Liquidity Risks
Some of the markets, exchanges or securities in which the Underlying Fund may invest may prove to be less liquid than developed markets and prices may be highly volatile from time to time. This may affect the price at which and the time period in which the Underlying Fund may liquidate positions to meet redemption requests or other funding requirements. The Underlying Fund is not listed. There is no secondary market for the Underlying Fund.
Product-Specific Risks
You are exposed to concentration risk. The Underlying Fund focuses its investments on a limited number of markets, countries, types of investment and/or issuers. Such a concentration of investments could increase the potential for volatility and risk of loss, especially in periods of pronounced market volatility. You are exposed to counterparty and settlement risk. The Underlying Fund will be exposed to a credit risk on parties with whom it trades and may also bear the risk of settlement default. You are exposed to custody risks. Market practices in relation to the settlement of securities transactions and the custody of assets could provide increased risk. As the Underlying Fund may invest in markets where custodial and/or settlement systems are not fully developed, the assets of the Underlying Fund which are traded in such markets and which have been entrusted to sub-custodians, in circumstances where the use of such sub-custodians is necessary, may be exposed to risks in circumstances whereby the Depositary will have no liability. You are exposed to emerging markets risk. The Underlying Fund invests in emerging markets where difficulties in trading could arise, resulting in a negative impact on the value of your investment.

VALUATIONS AND EXITING FROM THIS INVESTMENT
HOW OFTEN ARE VALUATIONS AVAILABLE?	Refer to "Pricing and Dealing Deadlines", "Settlement for Redemption" and "Free Look Period" stated in Product Summary for further information.
Valuations are available on each Business Day. The subscription and redemption prices are published in www.etiqa.com.sg .
HOW CAN YOU EXIT FROM THIS INVESTMENT AND WHAT ARE THE RISKS AND COSTS IN DOING SO?
• You may exit ("realise") your units wholly or in part by submitting a realization form to the relevant financial adviser or Us. Partial realisations are subject to minimum holding requirements. • You may return this policy for cancellation within fourteen (14) days after You receive the policy document, for any reason. We will refund You the Premiums You have paid less any change in the unit price(s) of the Portfolio Fund / ILP Sub-Fund and any costs incurred by Us in assessing the risk under the policy, such as payments for medical check-up and other expenses. Any partial withdrawal(s) previously paid to You under this policy will also be deducted. • Should the free look and/or redemption request be received and processed before 3 p.m. (Singapore time), the request will be taken to have been received on that Business Day and we will place your order on the next Business Day, subject to the ILP sub-fund manager's pricing policy. If you miss the cut-off time or on a day which is not a Business Day, the request will be taken to have been received on the next Business Day and we will place your order two Business Day later, subject to the ILP sub-fund manager's pricing policy. • The following example illustrates the amount of redemption proceeds You will receive based on a redemption of 1,000 units and a notional redemption price of S$0.95*:
Number of units to be Redeemed	Redemption Price	Gross Redemption Proceeds	Net Redemption Proceeds
1,000	X S$0.95	= S$950	= S$950
* The actual redemption price of the units will fluctuate according to the net asset value of the units.
